LIGHTHOUSE

This lighthouse is a sailing center landmark! It sits in the Marina Bay park and they say it is the window to the harbor.

Before it was a community park, back in 1919 this was a campground for only 75 cents a day! Then in the 1950s the campground was converted into a mobile home park.

STATUE OF LIBERTY

The replica of the Statue of Liberty is among the whimsical sculptures found on Balboa Peninsula in Newport Harbor.

Can you find both?

3 PALMER LUCKEY'S ARMY BOAT

The army boat is owned by Palmer Luckey. Luckey is founder of, Anduril, a company that builds cutting edge technology for the U.S. government.

Luckey previously co-founded Oculus Rift, a VR company purchased by Facebook in 2014.

FERRIS WHEEL

Since 1936, the Fun Zone at Balboa Village has been providing affordable entertainment for all ages, and it's most notable for its Ferris wheel! The famous wheel has been experienced by over 6.5 million riders and has majestic views of the Newport Harbor and the Pacific Ocean. This Ferris wheel was also featured in Childish Gambino's hit music video "3005"!

3005

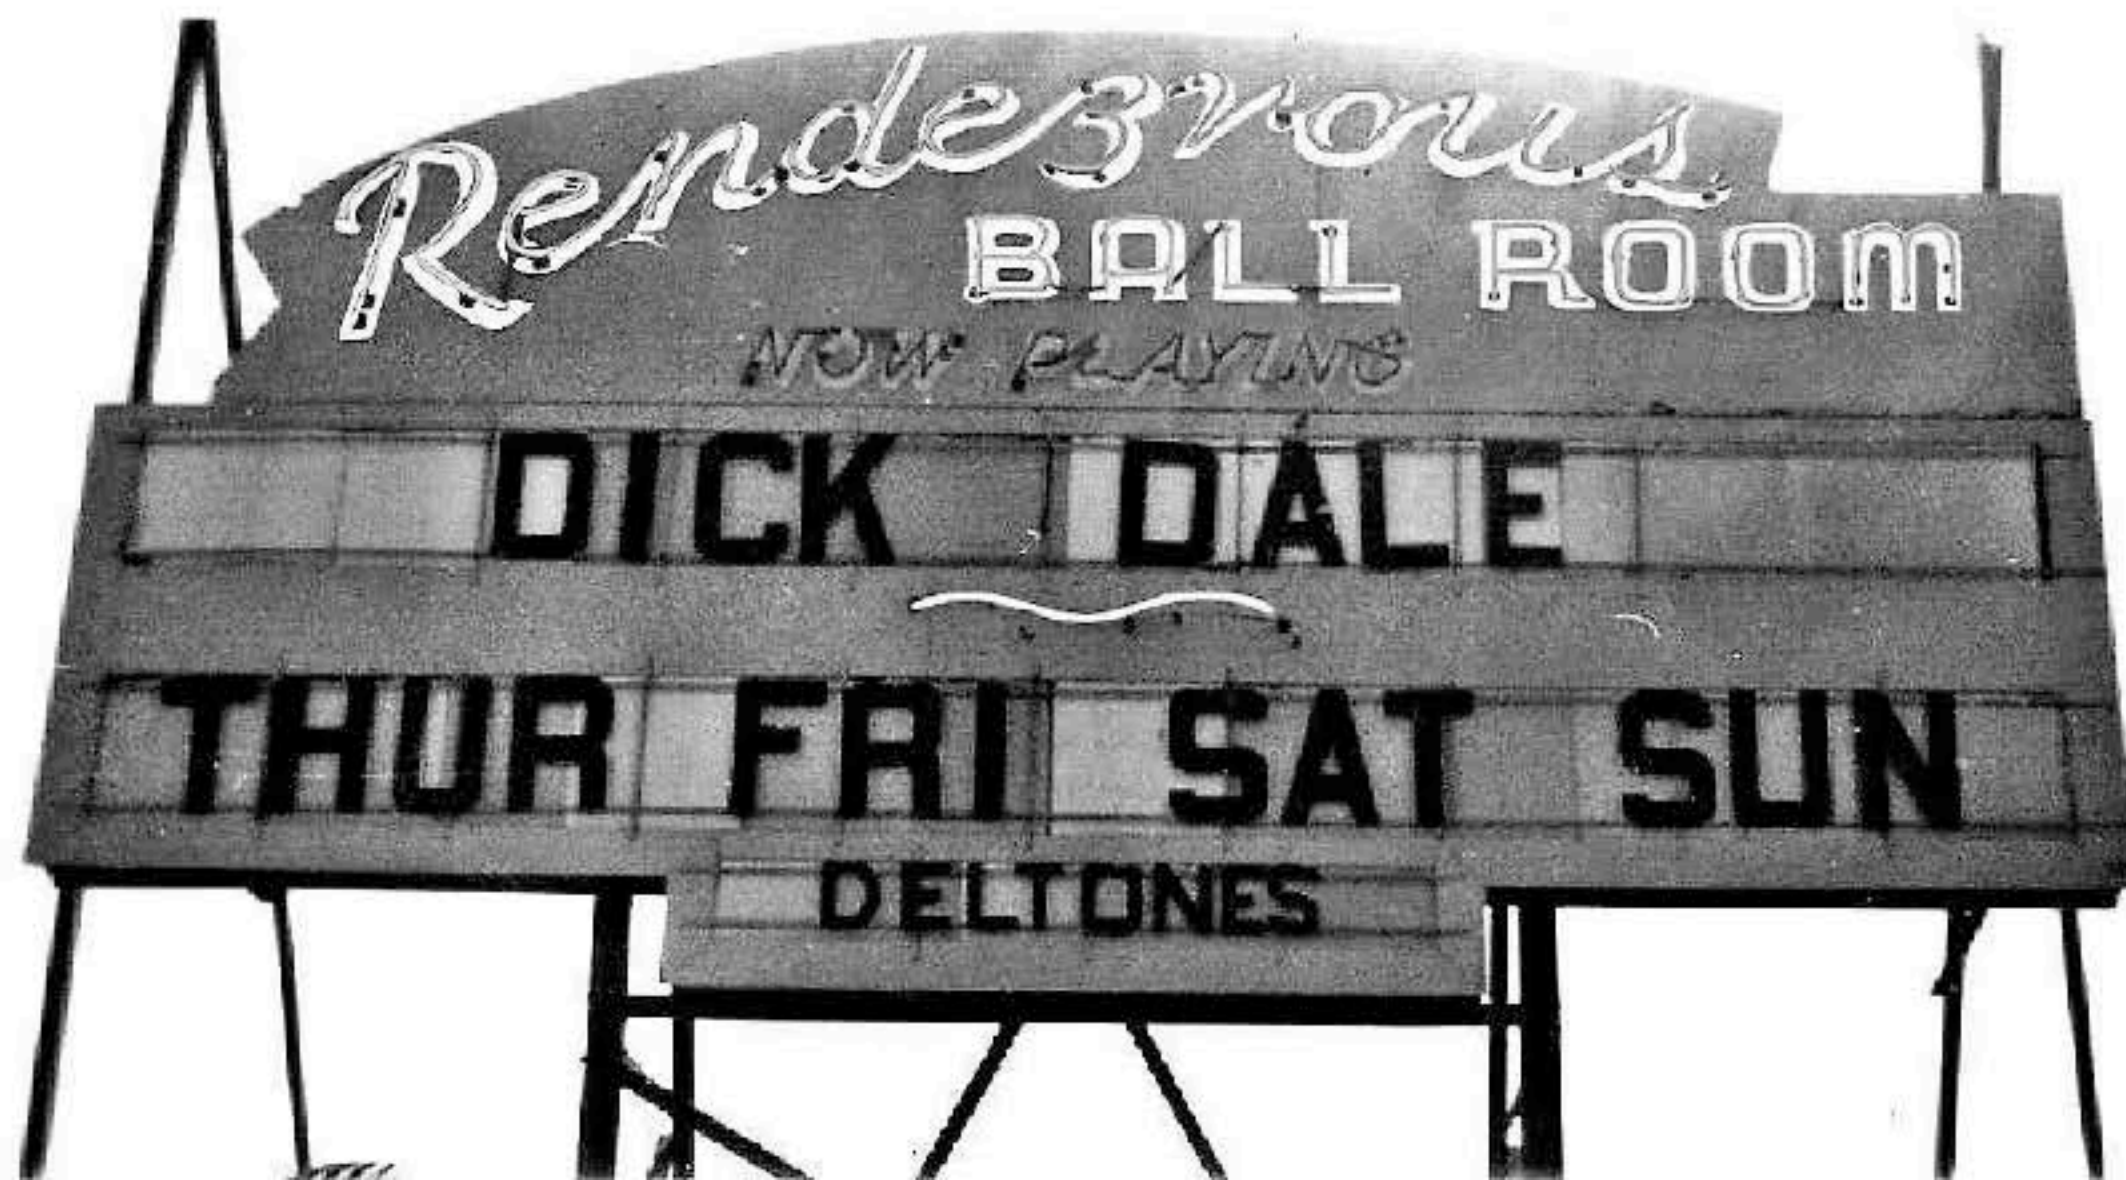

NO MATTER WHAT YOU SAY OR WHAT YOU DO. WHEN I'M ALONE,
I'D RATHER BE WITH YOU.

BALBOA PAVILION

Balboa Pavilion is a historical landmark for Newport Beach and one of California's last recreational pavilions standing from the early 1900s. Balboa Pavilion was built to attract people from all around for entertainment and land embellishment.

Many businesses have occupied her from a bowling alley, a post office, a museum, to a bootleg casino! Today she still serves the public as a restaurant and a marine recreation facility.

SHIRLEY TEMPLES FORMER HOUSE

Shirley is a 1930's original child movie star! Known for her dancing and singing but more famously known in Newport as the first "Miss Newport Beach" at age 13! After Shirley Temple moved out, her house became home to actor Buddy Ebsen, and then home to talk show host Joey Bishop until he passed away.

NEWPORT BEACH COAST GUARD

The U.S. Coast Guard Station in Newport Beach was incorporated in 1906. It is part of the Eleventh Coast Guard District encompasses the states of California, Arizona, Nevada, and Utah, the coastal and offshore waters out over thousand miles and the offshore waters of Mexico and Central America down to South America. In their busiest fiscal year 2015, Eleventh Coast Guard District units responded to 1,994 Search and Rescue cases, saving over 365 lives and 9.9 million dollars in property

8 THE BEAR HOUSE

The Bear House is a bayfront house with huge stuffed bears looking out the windows of the 2-story home. Tourists from around the globe are impressed by the over 4,000 bear collection. Marcy Cook, the California bear collector, has been collecting bears for over 30 years. The couple who lived in the house had a little boy, who unfortunately passed away. Many people began to send bears as condolences, and that is when the bear collection began.

JOHN WAYNE'S FORMER HOUSEHOLD

John Wayne aka "The Duke" is most famous for his western films starring in the award winning "True Grit" (1969), "Sands of Iwo Jima" (1946) and many more blockbusters from the beloved cowboy. Although he was Hollywood's favorite cowboy, he was a nautical man at heart. Wayne's most valuable possession was his yacht, Wild Goose, which can still be found in Newport's Harbor today!

Wild Goose was listed as U.S. National Register of Historic Places in 2011.

Can you find the Wild Goose?
